People's Choice Award—open to anyone

Jurors will choose their top 4 choices from any category to be submitted for the People's Choice Award. Conference attendees will vote and the winner will be announced at the dinner on July 21, 2012. Previous winners can submit new entries for this award.

In order to foster a competitive environment, it is the policy of the Competition that the previous year's first place finishers are eligible for the People's Choice award but not prizes or awards otherwise associated with the regular competition. We encourage entries from all artists, whether past winners or not, in accordance with the Rules of the Competition.
