

SABR 2011 – 2012 Negro Leagues Committee Library Grant Application

Below are instructions for the new 2011 - 2012 library grant competition. There will be two $1,000 grants awarded from SABR.

The NEGRO LEAGUES COMMITTEE (NLC) of the SOCIETY FOR AMERICAN BASEBALL RESEARCH (SABR) is pleased to announce their 2011 - 2012 grant opportunity for school libraries. SABR is a global team of almost 7000 individuals and nearly 30 research committees. Originating in 1971, the NLC is SABR's only committee dedicated exclusively to the history of black baseball. Since 1998, the NLC has hosted a JERRY MALLOY NEGRO LEAGUE CONFERENCE. Some of our initiatives include: 1) donation of books to local schools and/or libraries, 2) raising funds to purchase headstones for unmarked graves of former players and the 3) essay writing contest.

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS:

1. Current school libraries - not independent or community libraries.
2. Proposal sent by current school librarian.
3. Receive a letter of support from their Principal or Head Librarian.

SUBMITTAL REQUIREMENTS:

1. Application must be completed in full.
2. Your proposal must be attached to your application.
3. Your submission must include a letter of support from the school principal, top administrator, or Head Librarian.

The Planning Committee of the Jerry Malloy Negro League Committee will review all the applications and make two selections. The winners will be notified by Jackie Robinson Day, April 15, 2012. Books will be delivered to the winning libraries.
