

Richard "Dick" Clark Memorial Library Grant Application

Deadline: May 13, 2019

Below are instructions for the new 2018 library grant competition.

There will be two $500 grants awarded from SABR.

The NEGRO LEAGUES COMMITTEE (NLC) of the SOCIETY FOR AMERICAN BASEBALL RESEARCH (SABR) is pleased to announce their 2019 grant opportunity for school and community libraries. SABR is a global team of almost 6500 individuals and over 30 research committees. Originating in 1971, the NLC is SABR's only committee dedicated exclusively to the history of black baseball. Since 1998, the NLC has hosted a JERRY MALLOY NEGRO LEAGUE CONFERENCE. Some of our initiatives include: 1) donation of books to local schools and/or libraries, 2) raising funds to purchase headstones for unmarked graves of former players and the 3) essay writing contest.

In a separate attachment, covering no more than six pages, typed and double spaced using Times New Roman 12 point font, please describe the program you are proposing. Be sure to include a list of books/videos you would like purchased for your library and the costs. Also include the age range for the books selected. In addition to the list of books a narrative essay should be included to explain why these books are needed and how they will be used in the school to contribute to students' education about black baseball and American history. The project needs to define how students will be introduced to and learn about the history of black baseball after these materials are purchased and sent to the school library. The proposal must also include an evaluation process for the program and how results will be shared back to the committee.

Please mail or email: 1) completed application, 2) a letter of support from the top school administrator.

All applications must be postmarked no later than May 13, 2019 and mailed to:
